A MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

PRINCE BISMARCK MAY RESIGN HIS POSITION.

With the Return of Strength Emperor Frederick Yields More to the Anti-Bismarck Faction-An Open Rup-

BERLIN, June 2.—No sooner has Emperor Frederick seemed assured of some prolon-gation of his life than the influences hostile to Prince Bismarck display renewed ac-tivity. The conflict between the liberal tenlencies of the emperor and the chancellor's policy, which has been latent from the out set of the reign, now threatens to end in open rupture. The emperor is still too feeble to be credited with the exercise of unblased Judgment. He is swayed by the epinion of the empress, who has resumed u the comparative seclusion of Potsdam the setive domination she secured during the ill.

ness of the emperor at San Remo.

Trince Bismarck had warning of the coming troubles last week in a communication from the emperor blaming Minister Von Putkamer for abusing the government intuence at elections. Minister Von Putkamer offered to resign. Prince Bismarck hastened to return from Varzin. In two prolonged interviews he found the emperor desirous of reconstructing the ministry, including the household appointments. He also found him opposed to giving his assent to the quinquennial landing bill. After the first interview the emperor consulted with Dr. Friedberg, minister of justice, who is now trusted by both himself and the empress. Under the advice of Dr. Friedberg, the emperor signed the bill, at the same advising Prince Bismarck that he hoped this concession would be followed by reforms in the ministry. The letter of the Emperor to Minister Von Putkamer repeated his complaint made to Bismarck. Herr Von Putkamer has replied to the letter by detailing his administration of the interior department.

Meantime, the quinquennial law, which ought to have been published in the Meantime, the quinquennial law, which ought to have been published in the Reichsonzeiger, was withheld from promulgation by order of the emperor, who desired that the law should not appear unless accompanied by his letter to Herr Von Putkamer, on the freedom of the right to vote. When Prince Bismarck left the emperor after the last conference on Thursday the crisis appeared to have been settled.

crisis appeared to have been settled.

The ministry was to remain intact, and the quinquennial law was to be promulgated on Monday. To-day it transpired that Prince Bismarck had been consulting his colleagues on the order of the emperor for the postponement of the publication of the law. It was reported that the emperor had gone so far as to cancel his signature. The report, however, is unconfirmed, but the ministerial circle fear the worst.

The progressists rejoice at the prospect of the advent of a liberal regime. The Tagblatt, in an article on the crisis, declares that the people will hall gladly a government by the Hohenzollerns, but not by a Putkamer, nor even a Bismarck, however great his genius.

Holienzollerns, but not by a Pulkamer, nor even a Bismarck, however great his genius. Besides Herr Von Pulkamer, Gen. Von Schellendorf has offered to retire, exchanging the war office for the command of an army corps. The crisis has not yet reached the climax of the resignation of the ministry, and until Prince Bismarck has again consulted the emperor the issue of the conflict is doubtful, but the situation is grave enough to cause profound uneasiness. enough to cause profound uneasiness

His fever reappeared, the discharge of pus became opious, and the general exhaustion greater. He was able to go out this forenoon, but this evening the doctors forbade his going into the park, seeing that he was greatly fatigued and the wind being high. The French papers publish mendacious reports of the rigorous application of the regulations, and relate imaginary episodes of travelers, who they say have been insuited and turned back by the German commissary. A number of these were for Englishmen and Americans and were remitted to the applicants without delay, as was also the case with Frenchmen who affirmed that they intended only to pass through Alsace-Lorraine. M. GOBLET'S SPEECH.

It is Badly Received in Berlin and the Foreign Offices.

[Copyrighted, 1888, by the New York Associ-ated Press.] BERLIN, June 2.—M. Goblet's speech in reply to Premier von Tisza's statements has been badly received in both the Berlin and Vienna foreign offices. If M. Goblet had confined himself diplomatic statement of facts, Herr von Tisza would have replied to Herr Ap-ponyl's interpellation of the lower house of the Hungarian diet to-day with fuller as-surances of friendliness. M. Gobiet's thrust at Hungary and his allusions to the German frontier measures decided the Austro-Hungarian ministers to curtly reaffirm their peaceful intentions toward France.

The Post (semi-official) reminds the French government of incidents justifying foreigners in their distrust of the power of the government to protect them against the populace, and asks: "Did the empire prevent M. Does it protect Italian workmen from constant outrages in the south of France, or German subjects unless under the immediate shelter of German consulates?" shelter of German consulates?

NO INSULT TO FRANCE.

An Official Explanation From the Austrian Ambassador.

June 2 .- Count Hoyos-Sprinze stein, the Austrian ambassador, visited M. Goblet, minister of foreign affairs, after the latter's speech on Thursday in regard to Herr von Tizsa's utlerances and reiterated the peaceful assurances made by Count Kalnoky, the Austrian prime minister, and the latter's statement that no affront to France was intended by the speech of Herr von Tizsa.

Minister Floquet has announced that owing to the present state of home and foreign affairs it was inopportune to revise the constitution at this time. In consequence of the announcement M. Rochefou cauld announced that the Right would not demand a revision but would ask a dissolution and appeal to the country.

M. Laur moved in the chamber to-day the establishment of a zone in northeastern France wherein Germans should not be allowed to live, in retaliation for the restrictions on Frenchmen in Alsace-Lorraine, Minister Goblet opposed the motion, and it was rejected by a vote of 50 to 7. Paul De Cassagnae then exclaimed; "Voila seven fools."

THE COMPENSATION CLAUSE. Monster Mass Meetings in London

Against It.

LONDON, June 2.—The Irish exhibition opens on Monday at the Olympia, and if politics do not harm it the enterprise promises to be a great success. The Lord mayors of Dublin and London will be present at its inception in full state. Among the promoters of the exhibition are Earl Leitrim, Lord Hill, Justin McCarthy, Ernest Hart, and Her bert Gladstone.

Nine stands were erected for speakers. The procession formed on the Thames embankments, between Westminster and Blackfriars' bridges. They marched from there to Hyde Park, with numerons bands of music playing and hundreds of banners flying.

Mr. John Heaton (coaservative), M. P., has written to Mr. Ritchie saying that he is informed that the government is not opposed to the allocation of an additional 20 per cent. license duty for the purpose of compensation. This will only increase the revenue £300,000, which is a mere drop in the bucket in comparison with what is wanted. Next year, it is said, Mr. Goschen intends to repeal the duties on silver plate. This action will be of great importance to the India and American trade.

It is reported that Count von Wolkenstein, Austrian ambassador at St. Petersburg, will succeed Count Karolyi, who has charge of the Austrian embassy at Loudon.

The eelebration of the anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria took place to-day. The weather was bright and clear. The most notable features of the celebration were the reviews of the troops.

At Limerick the troops cheered in honor of the queen's birthday. A crowd which had assembled outside the barracks immediately responded with cheers for Mr. Wm. O'Brien and the plan of campaign.

Sir Joseph McNeale McKenna, M. P., has written the Parnellites that he disagrees with the resolutions of the Catholic meetings and deems the arguments that politics and religion are different domains fallacious. He reviews the various crimes committed by the Irish, and says he presumes the deluded men who were guilty thought themselves political actors.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

What Has Actually Been Accomplished

and What Yet Remains to Be Done. New York. June 2 .- Engineering News ublishes this week an article on the 'Actual Status of the Panama Canal," giving the results of a recent ex, ort examinaion of the entire length of the canal and accompanied by a progress profile showing the amount of work done and undone to Jan. 1, of the present year, both for the sea level and canal. The profile shows that the only work which is anywhere near completion is about eleven miles of dredging on the Atlantic end and about a mile at the Pacific end. On the remainder of the work the proportion done is very small in comparison with that undone. The estimate given in connection with this profile shows parison with that undone. The estimate given in connection with this profile shows a total of 34,081,000 cubic meters remaining, without allowing for the changes of river channels, Gimboa dam, &c., which raises the aggregate to 51,000,000 cubic meters. The company had admitted 32,000,000 to

The company had admitted 32,000,000 to 10,000,000 meters.

At the highest rate yet reached of 1,000. 000 cubic meters per month, it is estimated that at least four years will be necessary to finish the canal, if there is no lack of money. The total amount of cash actually expended up to the present date is $177,910,000, represented by $351,150,000 of securities.

sented by $351,150,000 of scenrities.

The amount necessary to be raised to complete the canal is estimated by Engineering News at a minimum of $230,000,000, which would be represented by at least $500,000,000 of new securities.

The article declares that the progress profile makes it evident that not one-tenth of the work nor one-twentieth of the money has yet been spent which would be required to open a scalevel canal which Lesseps declared last November would be opened Feb. 3, 1890. Therefore we can only escape from the conclusion that the impossibility of completing a sea level canal has been known for three or four years at least by assuming colossal ignorance, either of which is equally fatal to their credibility in regard to the lock project. The worst feature of the proper conduct of public works is not so much the small aggregate of the work done as the distribution it bears that all has been done for theatrical effect, to facilitate raising the wind by producing an impression in the ignorant and unthinking, rather than to so conduct the work as to complete it in the least time at the least cost. The worst feature of all is the completed section on the marshes which should not have been touched at all until the heavy work was nearly done. The next worst is doing so much work where it is likely to be washed out by floods in the Chagres river, without first completing the costly and doubtful damming and diversions on that river which are hardly yet begun.

MAY GO TO BUFFALO.

The President, With Mrs. Cleveland, Invited to His Old Home.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 2,-President and Mrs. Cleveland are expected to visit Buffalo this month. They were invited to attend the music festival on June 8 and 9 some time last month. Two friends and schoolmates of Mrs. Cleveland, who have both been entertained in Washington by herare to be married soon. They have both sent invitations to the President and his wife. The ladies are Miss Ida Gregg, who will wed E. H. Whitney, a local insurance agent, and Miss Natalie Stemberg, who is to become Mrs. Henry Voght.

Still Laboring Under Intense Excite ment-Her Victim Will Recover. Chicago, June 2 .- Mrs. Rawson was in licted for the attempted murder of Attorney Vhitney yesterday in Judge Jamieson whitney yeaterday in studie Santiceson's court room by the grand jury this morning. Mrs. Rawson passed a restless night in the county jail, and did not arise until late this morning. She looked pale and haggard, and it was evident the intense excitement under which she was laboring yesterday had not passed away. Lawyer Whitney was very comfortable this morning, and in a fair way to get well.

End of the Baltimore Walking Match. Baltimone, Md., June 2,—The six days go as-you-please walk was concluded to-night with the following score, only four of the seventeen starters remaining on the track at the finish: Hinghes, 506 miles: Elson, 465; Bau-meister, 450; Hoyle, 325. Hughes's share of the gate receipts will not exceed $600.

The Kerr Jury Disagree. New Yons, June 2.—The jury in the Kerr case reported a disagreement this morning and were discharged. It is understood they stood 8 to 4 for conviction. Kerr was released on $50,000 ball.

WHY HOLD A CONVENTION?

CLEVELAND HAS NAMED THE TICKET AND THE PLATFORM.

The New York Delegation However Rebel at the Administration Dictatorship and Will Proceed to Overturo 1t-A Red Hot Fight Between Gray

Sr. Louis, June 2.-Though a vast maority of the Democrats who have gathered here to attend the convention believe dudge Thurman will be nominated for Vice Presilent almost without opposition, the matter s by no means settled. If the ex-senator is the administration candidate, the administestion has up to this hour declined to so ivow. All efforts to induce Congressman Scott, who represents the President, to speak on the vice presidency have utterly falled. He will not say a word. The on the vice presidency have utterly falled. He will not say a word. The friends of Gov. Gray have sent innumerable persons to him to-day for the purpose of ascertaining what his wishes are, but without gaining the smallest satisfaction. Gov. Gray's friends practically admit that if Thurman is the administration's choice, he will be the nominee, but Mr. Scott's reticence has given them some hope, and they are to-night hard at work. They have to-day seen every delegate on the ground, and to-morrow will make a call on the delegates from the Pacific coast at the headquarters of the latter.

The coast men are for Thurman, and declare that his popularity with their people is so great that if the Republicans should make a nomination unsatisfactory to the Pacific states—for instance, that of some man who in Congress voted against one of their Chinese bills—the three states of the slope could be carried for the Democrats. The Gray men met this argument with the statement that Indiana is likely to be the battle ground, and that the Democracy could in no way make more sure of it than to nominate Gov. Gray. They take great pride in showing the figures to prove that Gray has always been successful before the people of Indiana.

Among the best informed persons now here there is little doubt that Congressman Scott came here with the intention of nominating Judge Thurman. They say the entire programme for the convention, ticket and platform, was arranged a few days ago in Washington, and that all that remains to be done is for the convention to ratify Mr. Cleveland's wishes.

Gov. Gray's friends are fighting hard, and and platform, was arranged a few days ago in Washington, and that all that remains to be done is for the convention to ratify Mr. Cleveland's wishes.

Gov. Gray's friends are fighting hard, and if compelled to go home defeated by the overshadowing power of the administration will do so in no good humor.

It is believed that as soon as the friends of the candidates for the vice presidency arrive they will join the Indiana men in opposing the administration's programme, and if this be done with general carnestness it may have the effect of causing Mr. Scott to abandon his present plan. He certainly has so far been cautious not to commit blimself to Thurman or anybody. One of Gov. Gray's lieutenants said tonight: "We are pretfy willing New York and Cleveland's friends should make the head of the ticket, the platform, and name the chalrman of the convention, but we are not willing they should go further and name the Vice President as well."

To morrow night the Indiana delegation will be all here and the Gray campaign be rushed for all it is worth. Few friends of the other candidates are here and little is heard of them. Many of the southern delegates are said to be for Gen. Black, but it is intimated that his name will not be presented. The objection to Senator Thurman on account of his age appears to be making headway, and it is helped along by stories concerning weakness, one of which is to the effect that he cannot get alond without the help of a man servant.

Dennis O'Brien.

Dennis O'Brien.

Dennis O'Brien, a delegate from New York, came on to-day ahead of his delegagation, and says New York will not support Thurman, but wants an Indiana man. The Gray men are more hopeful to-night than they have been since Thurman's name was brought out, though the odds are still against them. It is said that Mayor Chapin is to make the speech nominating Cleveland. Mayor Chapin is regarded by many as the voung Tildem of New York Wen Pemoe-

Nothing new has developed concerning agreed that it will reaffirm the tariff plank of 1884, and indorses the President's message, but will probably omit any reference to the Mills of it.

Having little else to talk about the delegates now here are complaining of the arrangement of the convention hall. Of the 3,300 sents in the galleries it is claimed that fully a thousand are so situated that their occupants will be unable to see the delegates below. Chairman Barnum and Senator Gorman inspected the hall to-day, and on the advice of an architect suggested to the local committee that the seats in the galleries be put upon an incline, so that their occupants might have a view of the body of the hall. It then developed that the hall is to be used next week for the Saengerbund, and that the seats in the galleries must be placed on level floor and be made temporary, so they can be taken out and small tables substituted for the convenience of the beer drinkers. There is much disastisfaction about this.

much dissatisfaction about this.

The arrangement in regard to the presstables was all overturned this afternoon, the national committee finally realizing that the arrangement of space and tables as made under the direction of Mr. Canda, treasurer of the committee, and Mr. Dickinson, the stenographer of the same body, were entirely unsuitable. There is also some criticism over the exalted position which Mr. Dickinson himself is to occupy in the convention. Under the present plan he will be the central figure, and the chairman will be be back of him, on a little higher level.

the central figure, and the chairman will be be back of him, on a little higher level.

The coast delegates have consented to a proposition, originating with Maryland, to enter a caucus to be held to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of uniting on a candidate for the Vice Presidency. Senator Gorman, of Maryland, has been actively agitating the question since his arrival to-day, when he was made acquainted with the wishes of Judge Thurman regarding the nomination. The coast delegates met at 4 o'clock and agreed to discuss the expediency of a combine. Their second choice is Dickinson, whose name is advanced as the choice of the administration. No positive expression could be obtained this evening as the temporary chairmanship has been para-sion could be obtained this evening as the temporary chairmanship has been paramount in the minds of all delegates halling from the Pacific slope. On this point they are more confident than ever of having their candidate selected.

Senator Hearst, whose name has been freely canvassed for second place on the ticket, has not authorized the report that he was in the race, and appears to have no anxiety on the score of a satisfactory selection that will unite the various conflicting parties. Indiana is a party to the combine, and that state will be solid for Gray, as the delegates say they cannot hope for a successful campaign with Thurman on the ticket.

A special in this morning's Republican from Columbus, Ohio, says: This evening the representative of the Republican called on Judge Thurman at his home, and found him in a happy and talkative mood. He opened the conversation by asking for the latest news, and when informed that the Thurman boom was rapidly spreading, said: "Yes, I guess so: at least it looks that way, judging from all the letters and telegrams I have been receiving, but didn't I say two years ago, and again two weeks ago, that there's no office on earth that I wanted?"

"I have the highest regard for President Cleveland and sincerely hope he will be reelected. If I thought that my name would add any strength to the ticket I am willing to make a personal sacrifice for the interests of the party. It is only upon the condition that the nomination comes without any struggle that I can accept."

COLUMECS, OHIO, June 2.—T. E. St. Louis, June 2.—Chairman Barnum, of the National Democratic Committee, arrived early this morning, but could not be seen in his rooms at the Southern Hotel. Congressman Scott, the Pennsylvania member of the committee, reached the city this morning. To a reporter Mr. Scott stated that, although he had as yet no conference with the few members of the national committee who are now in St. Louis, yet Gen. Collins, of Massachusetts, would undoubtedly be chosen permanent chairman of the convention. He could not say as to what the committee would determine upon as to the temporary chairmanship of the convention.

the committee would determine upon as to the temporary chairmanship of the convention.

Mr. Armstrong, of Ohio, and Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, are also in the city, and are registered at the Lindell.

Gen. Collins is expected to reach here early Sunday morning and will make the Flanter's his headquarters.

W. D. English, chairman of the Democratic committee of California, expressed himself as highly gratified by the announcement that Judge Thurman would accept the nomination of the vice presidency.

"We love the old man out there as England loves Gladstone, and he will get 5,000 Republican votes for the Democratic theket, and that will carry the state. New York has signified her intention of supporting him, and I think Pennsylvania is solid. He is a native of Virginia and will have great strength through the south. In fact, the nomination will be made by acclamation."

Mr. John Arkins, editor of the Rocky Mountain News, of Denver, Col., is for Black and will hear of no one else yet. He says: "They are talking of following the nomination of President Cleveland, which will take place with a hurrah, by the presentation of Thurman's name, and it will go through with a hurrah without a vote. I am sorry to see it, for I am for Black, but it looks that way. It is bad politics, very bad politics."

"Oh, I don't agree with you in that,"

"Oh, I don't agree with you in that," said Mr. English. "It is polities that will elect. It will add wonderful strength to the ticket." 'Well," said Mr. Arkins, "we have had one Vice President die during his term and we can't afford to have another. Thurman is very old—71 years, I believe."

TAMMANY OFF FOR ST. LOUIS. New York, June 2.—About 3 o'clock this afternoon 400 Tammany braves, in fifteen Wagner coaches and with a well stocked baggage car, set off on the New York Central for St. Louis. They will breakfast at Cleveland to-morrow morning, take dinner at Bellefonte, and supper at Indianapolis. On Monday morning they will roll into St. Louis. On each side of the baggage car, in big letters, was the sign, "Tammany Hall Delegation."

COUNTY DEMOCRATS OFF FOR ST. LOUIS. New York, June 2.—Ten Wagner sleepers, one baggage ear, and a private car composed the special County Democracy train which left the Grand Central depot for St. Louis to-night. The latter car will be used as a refreshment car. The baggage car was liberally stocked with liquid and solid provisions for the trip. In this respect the delegates were not less well provided for than the Tammany braves, who had gone west a few hours before.

JACKSON, MISS., June 2.—The Mississippi delegation leaves to night in a special car for St. Louis. All are enthusiastic Cleveland supporters. If Thurman enters for the second place the entire delegation will support him, otherwise it is divided between Black and Stevenson.

The Republican delegates are undergoing a change favorable to Gresham. It is claimed that one half of the delegates favor him. Heretofore the delegation was thought to be almost solid for Sherman.

Mr. Patterson will present Mr. Black's name to the convention for Vice President.

THE MARYLAND DELEGATION. An Indication That Gray Is Their

Choice for Vice President. Sr. Louis, June 3.—The Maryland delegation and portions of the Indiana, Conneccut, and Arizona delegations arrived here this morning. Senator A. P. Gorman, who heads the Maryland delegation, was seen and cut all attempts at interviews short by saying the delegation has had no conference and consequently no choice for Vice Presi-and consequently no choice for Vice President has been agreed upon. He closed further inquiry by saying he had no preferences. Whi. S. Wilson thought Thurman's nomination was generally favorable to Maryland. In the event of his refusal to be a candidate Maryland will favor a western man, luclining toward Indiana or illinois, with Indiana preferred.

Robert Crane, the youngest delegate to the convention, thought Judge Thurman would be the first choice of Maryland, and that the platform desired by them would be the same as proposed by Senator Gorman and adopted by the state convention, which declares in favor of revision of the tariff and reaffirms the resolutions of 1884, indicating how this revision shall be accomplished.

The Maryland delegation held a meeting at the Southern Hotel this afternoon and talked over the question as to the caudidate which it would support for the second place on the national Democratic ticket. The general scutiment seemed to favor Gray, of Indiana, for the nomination, it being contended that he would add strength to the ticket, and would secure Indiana to the Democrats without a doubt. No formal action was taken, however, and the delegation will map out its course at a future meeting. The name of Thurman, of Ohio, was mentioned, and, while his past services to his party and to the country were

In view of the possibility that the United States Senate may be divided equally on political lines after the next election, it was judged impolitic to nominate for Vice President a man who does not possess the youth and vigor necessary to possess the youth and vigor necessary to meet the hardships of the campaign. It was suggested that the delegation cast a complimentary vote for Senator Gurman.

After the adjournment of the meeting of After the adjournment of the meeting of the delegation there were rumors floating around the corridors of the hotels that Hon. P. A. Collins would be accorded the double honor of presiding over the convention both as temporary and permanent chairman. This, however, is not probable, and the present indications are that S. M. White, of California, will be elected temporary chairman.

It had alout 200 passengers aboard, of whom twenty nine were Ohio delegates to the convention. A stop was made here for supper, where four more delegates joined the party. Supper was served at the Grand Hotel. The entire was served at the Grand Hotel. The en party was supplied with red bandanas, and were enthusiastic for Thurman for V President, some even talked of putting forward for first place. The party left p. m. on the Ohio and Mississippi road. Duckworth Club will start to-morrow.

INGERSOLL FAVORS GRESHAM. He Cannot Understand Why Thurman

Ingersoll has been invited by the Illinois delegation to attend the Naonal Republican Convention and present in pemination the name of Walter O in nomination the name of Walter Q. Gresham for President of the United States, a reporter called upon that gentleman with regard thereto. Col. Ingersoll said he had made no arrangements to present the name of Judge Gresham to the convention, "but," he continued, "I am he favor of his nomination, and if nominated he will, in my opinion, be elected."

"Judge Thurman is a man of undoubted ability, but I do not see why he ought to accept the nomination. Four years ago he was not thought worthy of a Cabinet portfolio, and a man looked upon as unfit to fill a Cabinet position then ought not to be now asked to take a second place on the tleket to help the very man who held him in such light esteem. It hardly seems likely, when Cleveland's popularity is taken into consideration, that Thurman can help him, he being so nearly the opposite of the President. I have the highest regard for Judge Thurman, and I hardly think it fair of the Democratic party to put him in the undiguifed

EXERCISES AT WEST POINT.

The System of Warfare as Underston by the Cadets.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 2 .- The examnation to-day of the first class in engineer ing was oral and that also of the second ing was oral and that also of the second class in chemistry, mineralogy and geology. The first class had also to undergo a written examination in Spanish, and the fourth class in Freuch and English.

The examination in engineering attracted a number of visitors, and was held in the library. The following are some of the onestions:

uestions; Second question: Describe the place o Second question: Describe the place of batterles, and the object of mines and torpedoes in modern seacoast defense.

Cadet Lussod, to whose lot this question fell, said that one of the necessities for batteries in modern defense of coast towns was disappearing, and that guns and forts were necessary outside of harbors, and should be heavily armored. Chains and piles were necessary for obstructing channels, and cities should either be surrounded by a system of forts, or protected by floating batteries.

Third question: Describe the component parts and requisites of a good military position? This was answered by Cadet Freuch. Cadet Home discussed the subject of "field works," and Cadet Perry the fifth question, which was, "What precaution should be taken by an army in passing a wood and in passing a bridge?" The sixth question, "Describe secret and open military recommissances," was answered by Cadet Wilhelm. The seventh: Give methods of loading military mines in siege operations, was answered by Cadet J. P. Ryan. Flank marches was Cadet Daspiell's subject; route marckes and the method of marching, that of Cadet Stockle. Cadet Littlebrant illustrated and described the construction and use of a simple trench. Cadet Helnek handled the subject of open defenses used in military forts. Cadet Home discussed the subject of "field

RIEL'S INDIAN ALLIES.

The Indian Office Wants Congress to Give Them a Home.

The Speaker yesterday laid before the House a communication from the Secretary of the Interior containing a request from the commissioner of Indian affairs that a band of Cree Indians now located near Fort Assimilboine, Mont., be allowed to come to the Fort Belknap agency, Mont., for settle ment. In October, 1885, Information was received that these Indians, numbering 137 souls, had crossed the international boundary line and were located near the Fort Belknap agency, Mont. They had in their possession property the character of which clearly indicated that they had been engaged in the Riel rebellion. Application was made to the Department of State for their return, but it was not granted. The commanding officer at Fort Assimilboine, Montain territory, in a recent report, urged that some disposition be made of these Indians, and the Secretary says he thinks some congressional action should be taken without delay to enable the department to deal with the problem. He respectfully suggests that authority be granted to place these Indians on the lands of some of our own Indians who are willing to receive them, and, if not, to set apart a small reservation for their benefit. He recommends that $5,000 be appropriated to be used to relieve any destitution which may exist ampng them during the next fiscal year. ment. In October, 1885, Information was the Schools. Superintendent Powell stated last night that from twenty to twenty-five thousand persons have visited the industrial exhibits the rink since it opened. The demand for its continuance was so great that it will be kept open on Monday for the public and be kept open on Mondry for the public and on Tuesday for the teachers. The superintendent is well pleased with the results of the year's work. He proposes next year to surprise the friends of the schools with exhibits that will make them relofee.

One of the interesting exhibits to be seen is that of the Georgetown industrial school. It is under the charge of Prof. Arthur W. Chase, instructor in manual training. The carpenter work, drawings, and nobling work done by the young boys under him is very creditable.

"Many of your friends, Mr. Powell, think that you leave the public schools for an other field " asked the reporter.

"I don't intend to leave. My duties are pleasant and my efforts to aid the schools seem to be appreciated, and as long as the people seem satisfiel with me I will stay, like Washington and its people, and am too warmly attached to my work to be hel off," replied the genial superintendent.

DEFINING A STATUTE.

Mr. Jeff Chandler Baises a Nice Point

in a Habeas Corpus Case. Argument in the habeas corpus case Robert M. Thompson, who is in the custody of the marshal awaiting transportation to Tennessee as a fugitive from justice, was sumed in the criminal court yesterday afternoon before Justice Montgomery. District Attorney Hoge appeared for the government and Mr. Jeff Chandler for the defendant. The main point at issue was the validity of the indictment found against Thompson for withholding $1,000 pension money that he secured for his ward. At the time it was charged that Thompson withhold the money the pension laws allowed attorneys or agents to draw the money for thair clients. Since then the law has been changed and attorneys or agents are prohibited from receiving the money, and, as the indictment was found after the passage of the last law, Mr. Chandler claimed that his client could not be indicted for withholding what the statutes said he could not receive. Mr. Hoge controverted this position and authorities were quoted on both sides of the question.

STILL HOPE FOR SHERIDAN

HE HESTS QUIETLY AND GAINS SOME STRENGTH.

An Uneventful Day at the Family Residence Respite for the Physiclaus and Attendants The Cough Loose and Less Troublesome.

The band of affliction, which has late as heavily for a week past on the person of Gen. Sheridan, has been lifted for awhile, and the record of the past twenty-four hours shows that the gallant little soldier is at least holding his own, if he has not made a step toward recovery.

An attack of coughing at 3 a. in, was the dist symptom that marked the day's likeory in the household on Rhode Island avenue. The cough was by no means as strong as it had been, and it was accompanied by more expectoration, The fact that the dreaded cough had returned was made known to the walting newspaper men, by their hearing it, as they had before. Inquiry was at once made at the door as to the effect it had on the patient, but for some senseless and utterly intefensible reason, the doorkeeper insisted that there had been no coughing, and later that it was not the general, but some one else who had coughed. The facts, as developed afterwards, showed that all the physicians were aroused by the attack, and they at once repaired to the sick man's bedside.
